Are your clients asking for proof of insurance for contract work?

Neziol Insurance, working with Lombard Canada understands the need for errors and omissions liability insurance protection for computer consultants.

We work with start-up business as well as those already established. Our emphasis is Computer Consultants doing contract work, advising on electronic data processing issues, systems analysis, software design and programming. We will customize an insurance plan for you that is affordable and effective.

Do you wonder what would happen if an unseen error or oversight caused you to be sued?

Examples of Errors that can be costly

- * An invoicing system to process 75 accounts per minute turns out to perform only 10% as many.
- * Any web-design service opens the client to a copyright infringement action.
- * An accidental upload of a computer virus costs a company millions to restore corrupted data and software.
- * Confidential information is disclosed to an outsider, causing valuable inventory to depreciate in value.

Coverage Highlights*

- Professional Liability up to $2 Million to cover errors and omissions
- Aggregate fraud endorsement
- Comprehensive property coverage both on and off premises
- One policy to cover both your office package and professional liability (most IT insurers provide separate policies)
- Monthly billing to help you smooth out your cash flow
